Challengers for the Westchester Cup to Meet the American

Defenders.

NEW YORK, June 1 .- With faces a bronzed as the sea kings of old and look international polo team, headed by Lord Wimborne, arrived here yesterday on the Cunarder Carmania. The party was com-posed of Lord and Lady Wimborne, Maj. F. W. Barrett and Mrs. Barrett, the Duke of Peneranda, Mr. John Traill and Mrs. Traill. Capt. Vivian N. Lockett. Capt. Leslie St. C. Cheape and Capt. H.

Lord Wimborne who is sponsor for the present challenge and financing of the expedition, was willing to furnish all the June 9.

"We are liable to make some changes before the final nomination," said his lordship, "so it would be foolish for me to give you any particular line-up just yet. Polo teams change all the time, you know, and we shall certainly live up to the custom.

Plan for Practice Games.

We are going to Piping Rock without delay, and after we have been there a couple of days will be in a position better information the plans of the team. We intend to engage in not more than three or four practice games altogether. We may play the first one Tuesday afternoon." He said that the present team was much lighter than last year's challengers and that the Americans had an ad and that the Americans had an advantage in having better ponies.

Lord Wimbourne said that were it necessary he would take the field in the international, and it was understood that the same could be said of the Duke of Peneranda.

Probable Line-Up.

Oh, the memory of that evening,
As we waited with aching hearts,
Seeing the one we loved so dearly
Pierced by death's ernel darts.
BY HIS DEVOTED WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Two long years, oh, can it be.
That our dear and darling father
We no longer can see.
And his well remembered footsteps
We were always gind to hear.
But now since they are silent
We have shed many tears.
